ATTENTION BUSINESS OWNERS – Is your business paying one or more of these taxes: Corporate Net Income Tax Capital Stock Franchise Tax, Bank and Trust Shares Tax, Title Insurance Companies Shares Tax, Mutual Thrift Institutions Tax or Personal Income Tax Liability Tax? If you are paying one of these taxes we would like to talk to you. Did you know you may receive a tax credit from the state of Pennsylvania? The Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program allows a business to direct funds that would otherwise go to taxes towards the private education of Pennsylvania's students, such as the students at Good Shepherd School.

On July 8, 2008 an additional tax credit was added to allow subchapter S-corporations and other "pass-through" entities that pay personal income tax on PA business income to participate in the program. This is truly a win-win for our schools and for businesses throughout the state of Pennsylvania. Please call Mr. Patrick Bowe, Good Shepherd School Principal, at 737-7261.

PICNIC NEWS A big THANK YOU from the picnic committee to all of those who came to the picnic on Sunday. The weather was absolutely perfect and was taken advantage of with many games and even a few swimmers! The food, as usual, was abundant as was the fellowship. Thank you also to the volunteers who helped to make the day such a success. Our only wish is that more of our fellow parishioners could have made it. We hope that you can mark your calendars for next year and join everyone for such a welcome event. Aren't we always looking for something to make our church community feel more like family? This is one of those opportunities.

Do you have any suggestions as to what we could do to make the picnic even better? If so, please do not hesitate to contact the church office or email Allison Morgan @ abmorgan648@comcast.net with your ideas. We would love to hear from you!

In conclusion, the 158 people that showed up had a great time...let's double it next year! Thanks again to everyone!
 Dave Maceiko & Allison Morgan, aka the Picnic Committee
