Thank you again for your participation and continued support of our capital campaign.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL Thank you to all those who helped make this year's Vacation Bible School such a success! The learning, laughing, singing and dancing would not have happened without the generous help of our adult and student volunteers. The children had a great week and learned about five fascinating saints and their examples of faith, hope and love. Don't hesitate to ask the children about Juan Diego, Brigid of Ireland, Martin de Porres, Nicholas or Kateri Tekawitha---they'll be quick to tell you all about these wonderful saints as well as the amazing things they were able to do by putting their faith in God.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION FORMS for families of incoming first graders and new parishioners will be available at the Religious Education Office or they can be picked up in the chapel narthex. Classes are scheduled to begin September 14, 2009.

VACATION AND MASSTIMES.ORG This is vacation time for many people. You can always tell by the number of people who are away during the summer. Vacations are times when we can relax and reflect and enter into a new kind of pace that will help us see our lives in a different way. Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you." Vacation time, wherever it is taken, can and should be a time to be RE-Created. We certainly see it as a time to be renewed physically...how about spiritually? Perhaps we could make a special effort to welcome those people who are in our midst as vacationers, visitors, or tourists. And, if you're planning to be away, check with www.masstimes.org to locate the nearest Sunday Mass near your vacation spot. The lazy, hazy days of summer can be a time to experience the touch of the Lord in a unique kind of way.

SUMMER THOUGHTS

*There is a time to share with my children...
God in earth and sky and flower,
to teach them to wonder and reverence.
There is time to leave the dishes,
to swing them in the park.
To run a race, to draw a picture, to catch a butterfly,
to give them happy comradeship.*

*There is time to point the way to teach their infant lips to pray.
To teach their heart to love God's Word,
to love God's day... for children do not wait.
There is a time to watch them bravely go to school,
to miss them underfoot.
There is a time to teach them independence,
responsibility, self-reliance.
To be firm but friendly, to discipline with love.
For soon, so soon, there will be a time
to let them go, the apron strings untied...
for children don't wait.
There is a time to treasure every fleeting moment of their childhood—
the precious year to inspire and train.
A time to understand that an hour of concern today,
may save years of heartache tomorrow.
The house will wait, the dishes will wait,
the new room will wait, but the children don't wait!*

GOOD SHEPHERD RAMS CHEERLEADING

Registration is now open to any girl entering 3rd through 8th grade in the parish who is interested in cheering for the Good Shepherd Rams football teams. Last season, the Midgets were in the finals and the Ponies went all the way to the Super Bowl! Contact Helen Kantes at 737-8437 or hkantes@msn.com for more details. Registration will be open until the end of June. No experience necessary.

DRESSING FOR CHURCH Summer is definitely here and so is the tendency to dress casually. The Church, however, is a place of prayer and worship and not a place of sport and play. Therefore, although our dress may take on a summer flavor it should not be sun-dresses, shorts, T-shirts, sneakers, etc., that reflect play, rather than prayer. Young and old alike should dress in a manner that reflects the dignity of God's house and provides a sense of worship and prayer for all our parish community.
