Your contributions support the care of retired priests, the formation of seminarians, and the continuing formation of our priests and our permanent deacons in the Diocese of Harrisburg. Your generous donation to the annual Pentecost Collection shows how much you appreciate what priests and deacons do to serve you and ensures that their selfless ministries will continue for generations to come. Thank you for your past generosity. And remember...pray for vocations!

ONLINE DONATION SYSTEM

Thank you to all who have tried online giving thus far. A record of your contributions is kept on your account online, as well as posted to our records for tax purposes.

Deacons’ News That’s right: s’. Mr. Patrick Kiley, a member of the parish, who has been participating in the preparatory program for ordination to the Permanent Diaconate for the past four years, was ordained on May 22, at 10:00 a.m. in St. Patrick Cathedral, Harrisburg, by Bishop Kevin Rhoades. This is good news for him and the parish. Equally good news is that he has been assigned to Good Shepherd Parish. We are happy to welcome Deacon Kiley to the pastoral team of the parish and to continue the legacy of diaconal service, which has been admirably provided by Deacon Fran Gorman for the past 32 years. Deacon Kiley will serve and preach his first Mass in the parish as a deacon this weekend at the 11:30 a.m. Mass. A reception with light refreshments will be held after Mass in the Parish Hall.

Deacon Gorman is “on the mend” and has returned to service after a health-related episode at the 11:30 Mass last Sunday. Please keep him in your prayers.

SEMINARIAN NEWS Seminarian Daniel Richards has been assigned to Good Shepherd Parish for the summer and the upcoming school year. Dan is a 2nd year theologian at Mount St. Mary’s Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD. He grew up in Lebanon, PA, and entered the seminary after a year at Millersville University.
