DISABILITIES MINISTRY NEWS Priests Presented NCPD 2010 SERVANT-LEADER AWARDS—At its May 25 NCPD Friends Founders Dinner, NCPD presented its 2010 Servant-Leader Awards to Fr. Wayne Ball and Fr. Rick Curry, SJ. Both men have been featured in recent E-NEWS articles highlighting priests with disabilities during the Year for Priests.

Fr. Wayne, fluent in eight languages and a Canon Lawyer, is a pastor in the Diocese of Richmond and serves in the Tribunal. Fr. Curry founded the National Theatre Workshop of the Handicapped in 1977, and recently founded the Veterans Academy at Georgetown University to support veterans with disabilities and post traumatic stress (PTS). In presenting the awards, Janice Benton, NCPD Executive Director, noted: “We are pleased tonight to present to you two men who are serving our community in their unique roles as priests. We have known both Fr. Wayne and Fr. Rick for decades, and can attest to the many ways they have shared their creativity and talents with people with disabilities and the total faith community. We trust that other men and women with disabilities who are discerning a vocation to the religious life will emulate the powerful witness of Fr. Wayne and Fr. Rick.”

Janice Benton explained that the Pastoral Statement of U.S. Catholic Bishops on People with Disabilities \(1078\), which is a foundational document of our ministry, calls each person to use their gifts for the betterment of the faith community. It acknowledges that every person has a responsibility to serve. She noted that the Pastoral also offered this challenge, which is bearing fruit today: We look forward to the day when more persons with disabilities are active in the fulltime professional service of the Church, and we applaud recent decisions to accept qualified candidates for ordination or the religious life in spite of their significant disabilities.

Special Guest Theodore Cardinal McCarrick presented the awards to Fathers Ball and Curry. In his Invocation, Cardinal McCarrick acknowledged that each of us is “wonderfully made” by our loving God, and that we are called to serve God in “wonderful ways.”

A BIG THANK YOU to the Knights of Columbus and the Council of Catholic Women of the Parish for their very generous gift of $1,700, the proceeds from the Italian Dinner held in January 2010, to benefit the general fund.

Caring Families are being sought to welcome French teens into their homes this summer. Students will spend three weeks in South Central Pennsylvania this summer, July 7-27. You can represent the United States by showing these young Europeans how we live our daily lives.

The students are coming to practice their English and to immerse themselves in American culture and family life. Ideal host families will have children at home, but others are welcome to apply. Homes without children may provide opportunities for students to interact with others of their age, such as neighbors, church youth groups, and sports teams or clubs.

Each student speaks English, is fully insured, and has his or her own spending money. They enjoy a variety of sports and activities and are anxious to learn about their American counterparts. Families are reimbursed $80 per week to assist with expenses.
