A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Keep them, I pray Thee, dearest Lord,
Keep them, for they are Thine -
Thy priests whose lives burn out before
Thy consecrated shrine.
Keep them, for they are in the world,
Though from the world apart;
When earthly pleasures tempt, allure, -
Shelter them in Thy heart.
Keep them, and comfort them in hours
Of loneliness and pain,
When all their life of sacrifice
For souls seems but in vain.
Keep them, and O remember, Lord,
They have no one but Thee,
Yet they have only human hearts,
With human frailty.
Keep them as spotless as the Host,
That daily they caress;
Their every thought and word and deed,
Deign, dearest Lord, to bless.

The Grace of Sustenance
In our daily lives, we face various and difficult circumstances of life from lack of employment, the loss of loved ones or having to deal with news of terminal illness. Our faith teaches us God loves us and cares for us. He always provides for us in all these different life situations. This does not mean we would not have difficult challenges to face in life. But when we find ourselves in some of these difficult situations beyond our control, we become so fearful and we often think that God has withdrawn His love from us. We tend to ask the question “why has God allowed this to happen to me?” or “why has God abandoned me?” When we ask such questions, what we are doing perhaps unknowingly, is simply focusing on our pain and suffering and not being mindful of God who is truly present with us in our particular situation and whose love is what is truly sustaining us. We simply forget we are not alone and that we are being sustained by the grace of the loving God. His grace is what keeps us going in the midst of our hardship. The gift of faith is one that works in our hearts and helps to open the eyes of our mind so we could see and believe in the love of God for us. However, this cannot happen if we are not attuned to the workings of the Spirit of God in our lives. When we are truly in touch with what God is doing in our lives, those crises moments would not only serve as opportunity for us to profess our faith in God. The grace of faith actually becomes our means of sustenance as we know that it is only God who can help us overcome the challenges before us. In those moments, our faith is not just a knowledge we possess which tells us that God loves us. It is indeed our life’s conviction which propels us toward Jesus our Life. This is the story of Jairus and the woman with hemorrhages. In them, we see faith in action as each one turned to Jesus seeking the restoration of life.
